REWARD.

WHEREAS the Subſcriber, of Lyme, in New-London County Connecticut, was wickedly left on ſhore about the 24*th* of Auguſt laſt, at Cape Negro Iſland, by one THOMAS PRESCOTT, with whom he ſailed from St. Andrews, Paſſamaquoddi, in New-Brunſwick, bound for Halifax. And whereas ſaid Preſcott is indebted to the Subſcriber One Hundred and Twenty Pounds, for Goods ſold him at St. Andrews, and has carried off with him a Number of Grindſtones and Mooſe-ſkins, belonging to the Subſcriber, ſhipped on board ſaid Preſcott's Scooner at St. Andrews, as alſo his Cheſt, containing his Money, Cloathes, and Papers, among which were ſundry Obligations to the Amount of Three Hundred Pounds: The above Reward will be paid to whoever will ſecure the ſaid Preſcott, that he be brought to juſtice, by me

ELIJAH ELY.

N. B. Said Preſcott has four Notes of Hand for Twenty Pounds each, given him by ſaid Ely, being the Balance of ſome Bills of Exchange on London, drawn by ſaid Preſcott, and given by him in Payment for the aforementioned Goods, and which ſaid Bills he was to redeem in Halifax with Caſh and the Notes of Hand abovementioned, but which Bills he has now carried off with him, and which ſaid E[illegible] has Reaſon to ſuppoſe were good for Nothing. He therefore warns all Perſons from purchaſing ſaid Notes.

Said Preſcott is in a Schooner of about eighteen Tons, rebuilt at St. Andrew's, has her Mafts and Topmaſts in one Piece, and has her Cabbin cieled over head. He is a ſmall Man, about thirty Years of Age, thin Face, black Hair which reaches to his Waiſtband, and has one or two Scars on the Top of his Head. He ſays he came from England, he ſpeaks Engliſh, French, Spaniſh, and Dutch, and ſhifts his Dreſs very often.
